

Quick, Plain-English Summary

- New Year Resolution (website) collects only the information you give us without checking it.
- Google Analytics is used to help determine how to best build this website to serve users.
- This uses Google AdSense which uses cookies. Google's use of advertising cookies enables it and its partners to serve ads to your users based on their visit to your sites and/or other sites on the Internet.

Who are we?

New Year Resolution is owned and operated by Bezdenezhnykh Maxim (we/us). For any concerns, please email us at nyrproj@gmail.com. We do not maintain a business phone number.

What sort of personal information do we collect about you?

Here is the information we collect from you:

- First and Last Name
- Year of birth
- Your country

Do you use cookies?

Yes, cookies are used by Google AdSense to improve your advertisement experience. Google Analytics also uses cookies to help us improve the website and overall presentation to our users.

Where is my personal data stored?

Your data is stored through the AWS services platform.

How long is data stored?

To make our site operate as intended, we keep your data until you tell us to delete it using our contact email address.